

Imperative Reaction, Further To Fall

So mediocrity isn't enough
But your hypocrisy
Is sucking it up
What you claimed to be
Is conflicting with reality
So above it all
How does it feel?
Watching them fall while you conceal
The reasons you've gone so far

Keep pulling down
Because this won't last forever
As they hit the ground
Just know that you will never
Reach the heights you failed to climb
Though you tried to be them all
You have failed to realize
The louder your words
The further you will fall

Your repetition
A permanent state
But you're masking your jealousy
As if it were hate
What you try to be
Is conflicting with reality
So above it all
How does it feel?
Watching them fall while you conceal
The reasons you've gone so far
