

Incubus, Neither Of Us Can See

BB: I am one big walking chemical reaction

CH: A buzzing hive of cell synapsis and nascent self perception

BB: Isn't it disdainful and curious

CH: That both of us think we know everything

BB:

We both have pains

We both have eyes

(Neither of us can see)

We both have pains

We both have eyes

(Neither of us can see)

One in the same

Two of a kind

And neither of us can see

CH: I am just a blinking neon roadside attraction

BB: I sow future wrinkles and Im told Im tapped potential

CH: Isn't it disdainful and curious

BB: That both of us think we know everything

BB:

We both have pains

We both have eyes

(Neither of us can see)

We both have pains

We both have eyes

(Neither of us can see)

One in the same

Two of a kind

And neither of us can see

BB: I am one big fleeting errant contradiction

CH: So good to meet you we are one in the same

BB: Isn't it disdainful and curious

CH: That both of us think we know everything

BB:

We both have pains

We both have eyes

(Neither of us can see)

We both have pains

We both have eyes

(Neither of us can see)

One in the same

Two of a kind

And neither of us can see
