

India Arie, Interested

Your favorite food, what you like to do
Your favorite color, or any other
Thing on your mind that you'd like to share
Cause I can stay here and listen to every word

Because I'm interested - can I be an instrument
Of change in you're life?
Is that all right?
Because I'm interested, I'd rather be with you instead
Of any one else

Because I'm interested in your middle name - now don't be ashamed
It's between me and you - everything that we do
So let your guard down because there's a new girl in town
Could you turn it around; I hope that you are down

Because I'm interested - can I be an instrument
Of change in you're life?
Is that all right?
Because I'm interested, I'd rather be with you instead
Of any one else

I'm wide-open, no more secrets, no more lies
Don't wanna act like a fool, but I will for you
So I'll beg, I'll scream, I'll call, I'll write
If that's what it takes for you to be in my life
Because I'm interested

Because I'm interested - can I be an instrument
Of change in you're life?
Is that all right?
Because I'm interested, I'd rather be with you instead
Of any one else
