

India.Arie, Strength, Courage And Wisdom

Inside my head there lives a dream that I want to see in the sun Behind my eyes there lives a me that I've been hiding for much too long
'Cause I've been, too afraid to let it show 'Cause I'm scared of the judgment that may follow
Always putting off my living for tomorrow It's time to step out on faith, I've gotta show my faith It's been illusive for so long, but freedom is mine today
I've gotta step out on faith, It's time to show my faith Procrastination had me down but look what I have found, I found
