raise your hands
raise your hands high
don't take a seat
don't stand aside
this time
don't assume anything
but go go go
i am a problem child
i've been wild all my days all my anger and my rage my senses said it would lead me astray i said go go go
raise your hands
raise your hands high
don't take a seat
don't stand aside
this time
don't assume anything
this time
don't assume anything
i said this time
one two three four jump jump jump so high
watch me let you down
if i stumble i will stumble if i fall i will fall
try to hold it like rain in the river but everything is getting bigger better this won't last forever touch me and fall
yeah
