

Inhale Exhale, Your Walls My Words

Now we're making progress
Life goes on for one more day
Now we're building futures
Hopeless lives won't be the same
And would you give up everything for this cause?
Acting out of love instead of greed

Moving on from everything we left
And leaving the loving and hurting behind

Allowing ourselves to be bound in faithfulness
Turning pages, there's hope inside this book
And you would give up everything for this cause
Acting out of love instead of greed

And leaving the loving and hurting behind
