

Innuendo, If I Could

girl I wished I'd never known you and I wished I'd never loved you should've neverever held you let along keep thinking of you the smell of your perfume still lingers in my room I can never forget why figure on that side of bed how I wish you'd never ever leave me I can resist but reminisce I'll cease to exist baby please make room to forgive me I can't replace that pretty face I can never love again

Bridge;

if I could I would've brought you here and turn back the time when you were mine and we would vow this love will never die if I could I'd never say those words that hurts you so bad so baby please..I'm on my knees gotta come back if I could I would've told you that I'm over you would've never ever let you see me crying for you but everytime I go to sleep thoughts of you keep haunting me how the heck can I bear your sweet laughter's in the air
you'd tell me I am dreaming I have no choice.., I miss your voice girl you have to make it ring
baby please
I can't go through another day I can't go back, I can't live baby so tell me what I have to do

Chorus;

oh baby tell me what I have to do I've been losing sleep and I just can eat without you, no one will do baby please , sugar please you never can deny what we had was good , and it's so good take my hand , come home so whenever you need me just come home if you're willing to forgive me , come home you'll know I'll be around , come home I'm so lonely....lonely....come home
