

Inoue Joe, Kakusei

Some things going on
You know you have to start it somewhere
(Why does your heartbeat sound so much like the one I play?)
Aiming and waiting to break in, fade in
(Why does your heartbeat sound so much like the one I play?)
Take in the sun
Every single one
Don't yell out boy
We will try to sing this one more time
Wide awake
So even though I must go
All the way inside
Wide awake
Use it while you are young
Go all the way inside
