I got a head inside a pillowcase I'm banging on a stop sign (Psh)
Motherf**ka, say hello to these tunnel runners
We coming for you, gunning and stunning, and rep for many others
Swario Atilishiki taught us to stab
In my city get your titties and ass a first grab
Hang on cause the train be hitting many corners fast
Jump off, we move on and we forget your ass

Take me through the underground
Take me through the underground
I don't want no sun.
I don't want; I don't want sunlight no more
Bury me deep underground.
Bury me deep deep underground
Let me tunnel run.
Wanna be a tunnel runner, do ya wanna?

We a train like a motherf**ka long with no end
They lead the witches everywhere, but leaving ain't my friend
We see the train coming, richies running, locking they doors
But they be tripping when the bullets clipping, ripping through the walls
I gets' wicked like wonka, if you kill me I'll haunt ya
And trap ya, wake Blaze up from the dead to bitch slap ya
I lay in my bed, shoot Roman Candles at the ceiling
I like the fire that rains, and I can't explain the feeling
I know that I'm alone, but this train is packed
With people just like me that don't know where the f**k we at
But this the only format that we fitting, that's it
Night train coming through with that wicked shit.
I don't care about the dame that's tied up to the tracks.
Or stalled out cars, we sawing all o' that in half.
And don't miss it cause it ain't another train like this.
So just ride, and don't waste the Whiz. (Shh)

All aboard.
If you think you can hang
For wicked shit, this is your train

Hold tight, don't fall, where'd you get that ticket?

You know the drill, back to the caboose

To shovel coal until you decide which path to choose
We ain't never gonna stop, it's just too much fun
We got everything we need, nothing has to be brung
Boxcars full of dreams, schemes and thoughts
Money making millionaires that were street smart taught
Look out the window, stare into the eyes
Of all the people watching us float right by
Get out the way, coming through, put your penny on the track
What you see is what you get, some happy traveling rats

All aboard.
If you think you can hang
For wicked shit, this is your train
