

Institute, Secrets And Lies

Transformation

We become someone else

Dislocation

As we get so far from ourselves

My condition's getting worse

I can't do without

Addiction is the lust

That won't let you out

All your secrets and your lies

Walk fast out of burning buildings

Kill youth with easy listening

You gotta keep terror at a healthy distance

It's fine

From time to time

Conversations

Are something of the past

Investigations

Of everything that holds us back

Your contrition is deserved

You'd like to disappear

Find a new home

For your salty tears

All your secrets and your lies

Walk fast out of burning buildings

Kill youth with easy listening

You gotta keep terror at a healthy distance

Godspeed to sustain illusions

It's fine

From time to time

It's fine

Was the landmines

Landmines

Walk fast out of burning buildings

Kill youth with easy listening

Godspeed to sustain illusions

Godspeed to sustain illusions

Walk fast

Walk fast

Gotta keep terror at a healthy distance

Godspeed

You gotta keep terror at a healthy distance
