

Intwine, Angel eyes

Seen my soul walk away
As I lay down to sleep on a bed
Made of thorns and the heat
Made me run the confusion ahead
And a sleep try and dream
Angel, Angel eyes darling I love you
Angel, Angel eyes darling, I'll be holding you tonight
Seen my soul walk away
As I lay down to sleep next to what
What one was now is gone
Like the waves beating down on a shore
Hold on, always will
Looked out my window
Just the other night
I was looking for your light
Shine for me one last time
Bright...
