

Isak N Jiyeon, Tell Me Baby

Late last night a call came from your other girlfriend
I couldn't believe your stories from the beginning
I'm still shaking from the shock
You are an entirely different person from the person i knew
Now i know about that, i'm so sad
Tell me baby

* chorus *

How much you deceive me?
How often did you spend with her?
All that time you gave to me~
Without you all i have is sadness
I can't compete alone
I don't wanna play that game
Now i've changed, tell me baby
Sometimes when you couldn't meet me i become suspicious
Those worries about things i didn't know about wouldn't go away
Now i feel hurt
You are an entirely different person from the person i knew
Now i know about that i'm so sad, tell me baby

* repeat

Why don't you talk more about love to me? oh no
Why do i have to love you?
I want to believe that you are whole no~
Please tell me, i want you to tell me baby
