

Isis Gee, If i was You

Won't deny the way
Concealing your truth
Withholding your light
Up for you
I would I would
If I Was You
Won't deny the way
Concealing your truth
Withholding your light
Up for you
I would
If I Was You
People change
Right before our eyes
And shed their skin
Of what they feel
They compromise
Im half empty
Never full anymore
Pillow stained
With faithless tears
That flow like years
At a never ending midnight
Won't deny the way
Concealing your truth
Withholding your light
Up for you
I would
If I Was You
Won't deny the way
Concealing your truth
Withholding your light
Up for you
I would I would
If I Was You
Caught below
The glass ceiling in life
Feeling trapped
And unsatisfied
Testing fate
Failing answers
If I could (I would)
Take a bullet for you
In slow motion for you
And protect you from yourself
Won't deny the way
Concealing your truth
Withholding your light
Up for you
I would
If I Was You
Won't deny the way
Concealing your truth
Withholding your light
Up for you
I would I would
If I Was You
