

Isis Gee, Living Proof

This dream
Fragile as it breathes
In your eyes
In this scene
I'm naked at the seams for you
On this diamond pearl night
And every night
I thank God for you
I rid my old disguise
No longer recognized
I close my eyes
I escape to you
I face the dance
I'm in a trance
In love with you
I'll never be the same now
And is that a crime?
You free my soul
Take me by the hand
In the face of truth
In everything that fades now
From a past life
You are the one
To help me breathe again
My Living Proof
Fate breathes
Oceans of pearls in our grasp
Clutching the rich in the reflection
Of our diamond hearted path
And every night
I thank God for you
I rid my old disguise
No longer recognized
I close my eyes
I escape to you
I face the dance
I'm in a trance
In love with you
I'll never be the same now
And is that a crime?
You free my soul
Take me by the hand
In the face of truth
In everything that fades now
From a past life
You are the one
My Living Proof
I'll never be the same now
And is that a crime?
You free my soul
Take me by the hand
In the face of truth
In everything that fades now
From a past life
You are the one
My Living Proof
I could not breathe without you
I could not grow without you
I could not fly without you
I could not be without you
