Itchycoo, Crash Course In Love

Verse 1
Why should I even bother
Tomorrow's just another yesterday
A constant fight to get through
But still we're in to deep to run away
It's not a game we play

Chorus
We always push, and shove
A slow crash course in love
We try to rise, above
To know what's it's made of
I know somehow, someway
It's all about today
This is a slow,
Crash course in love

Verse 2
Can't walk the straight and narrow
Cause only losers take the easy way
We let our faults define us
We feed our demons, but we're still ok
Heaven is hell to pay

Chorus

Break
We push
We shove
We crash

Chorus
