

Iza Miko, Hellos & goodbyes

Such is our love just hellos and goodbyes
Moments of joy and quiet lonely cries
I say Good Morning, you say Good Night
I wait to meet you in my dreams, cause you show up every night
But I know that youre there and Im here and we dare take Gods gift and believe in our prayer.
I see a shining star in the sky.
Or is it a far, far twinkle in your eye?
Remember that Id never let you fall
Because my loves so deep that itll break down every wall
And I know you dont care that youre there and Im here cause we need our love like we need air
Oceans to cross just to catch my falling tear
Longing so strong that you swim with no fear
Once touched by you I felt I was home
My soul knew it will never be alone
And I know its not fair that youre there and Im here and we have to just let our hearts be bare
Simple dreams of your face on my pillow
Your hand caressing my lips in the sunrise glow
Our blind faith will show us the way
Against the odds together we will welcome every day
All I can give you right now are my hellos and goodbyes,
Highs and Lows every day..damn it, why dont you just stay...
