

J. Holiday, Fallin'

I'm half gone cause my lady ain't here. I been smoking and drinking, just sittin here in my chair. Tea ain't been the same since ya left with my heart.

One minute it was good the next it was bad. I wonder what happened to what we had. Girl you just left me without a sign; I need you back before I lose my mind.

Girl I'm fallin' and I can't get up baby. I'm fallin' and I can't get up baby. I'm fallin' and I can't get up babe, I'm falling deeper, deeper...deeper.

I got everything but I don't have you. I can't help but think about the things we used to do. Don't wanna hang in the streets cause I don't wanna find no one new. Girl you got ya hooks in me, got me stuck like glue.

One minute it was good the next it was bad. I wonder what happened to what we had. Girl you just left me without a sign; I need you back before I lose my mind.

Girl I'm fallin' and I can't get up baby. I'm falling and I can't get up baby. I'm falling and I can't get up babe, I'm falling deeper, deeper...deeper.

Can you come catch me because I think that I've reached the end of my rope. Girl, I just refuse to believe that we've reached the end of the road.

Girl I'm fallin' and I can't get up baby. I'm fallin' and I can't get up baby. I'm falling and I can't get up babe, I'm falling deeper, deeper...deeper.
