

Jaci Velasquez, I Promise

Johnny Ramirez and Jaci Velasquez

Lord, You know my heart

And all my desires

And the secret things I'll never tell

Lord, You know them well

Though I may be young

I see and understand

That at times like sheep we go astray

And things get out of hand

Chorus:

So I promise to be true to You

To live my life in purity

As unto You

Waiting for the day

When I hear You say

Here is the one I have created

Just for you

Until then, O Lord

I will be content

Knowing that true love

Will come someday

It will only come from You

Cause I have seen the suffering

That loneliness can cause

When we choose to give our love away

Without a righteous cause

Chorus
