

Jack Greene, Back In The Arms Of Love

Back in the arms of love forever home to stay
With you the rose of love blooms every day
Back in the arms of love never agin to stray
Where aching hearts and tears have moved away
Darling forgive me for being a fool for I know how close I came to losing you
Back in the arms of love where skies are crystal blue
And every day is spring because of you
Darling forgive me for being a fool...
Back in the arms of love back home with you
