

Jack Greene, Yearning (To Kiss You)

[Both]

Yearning to be with the one I can't agree with yearning to hear you call my name
Like a fool I left you and now I can't forget you please forgive me take me back again

[Jeannie]

I'll never be the same without you darling

[Jack]

You'll always be my everything

[Both]

My love for you's still burning and my poor heart is yearning

While you wear another's name

[fiddle]

Yearning to hold you and let my arms unfold you yearning to hear you call my name

Yearning to kiss you oh darling how I miss you oh how I wish you felt the same

[Jeannie]

I never knew how much you cared about me

[Jack]

I thought you were fooling from the start

[Both]

Yearning to kiss you oh darling how I miss you

I wish that we could make commance sweetheart
