

Jack Greene, You're Heavy On My Mind Today

You're heavy on my mind today you're running through my mind today
You're in my eyes each time I look away you're heavy on my mind today
I want you so much today I need you so much today
You're each letter and each word I wanna say you're heavy on my mind today
Heavy on my mind today heavy on my mind in every way
Your mem'ry took my mind and went away you're heavy on my mind today
[piano - guitar]
I've never seen it quite this way I've got it good or bad I'd say
Something in my thoughts just seems to say you're heavy on my mind today
Heavy on my mind today...
You're heavy on my mind today
