

Jack Ingram, Everybody

Everybody loves you
Everybody's scared
Everybody hates you
Nobody cares
Everybody's crying
Everybody's free
Everybody's fortune
Just looks like luck to me

Chorus

What are we so afraid of
Everybody sleeps alone
In our darkest hour
We all find our own way home

Everybody loves you
Well Jesus told you so
Everybody's lying
Hell, even Jesus knows
Everybody's happy
And has a right to be
Everybody's laughing
I think the jokes on me

Chorus

Everybody loves you
Everybody's scared
Everybody hates you
Nobody cares
