

Jack Johnson, Walk Alone

Who's to say
He's not the gifted one
Well, I forgot
He's not the teacher's son
Well, he's just a
Reason for her to say that
She needs a
A substance in her today
Well, who's to say
He's not gonna see the sun
Well, I forgot
He's not the gifted one
No, he's just a
Another version of his dad
Who loved to love things
That he never

All he ever does is walk alone
Many can only
Walk so far before
All he ever does is look inside
He don't need no where to hide

I know she is
All that he ever loved
At seventeen
Too bad to her he was
A passing thing
Only temporary
Till she finds
Someone with everything
She's what we
Might call a sugar queen
See her whole scene
Consists of diamond rings
Well, that's okay
Probably better anyway
Cause now that she's free
Well, she might finally see that

All he ever does is walk alone
Many can only walk so far before
All he ever does is look inside
He don't need no where to hide
