

Jack Off Jill, Make You Beleive

i know all your secrets and i have no one left to tell when i spilt into fractions cos i, i know the story well but i have no one left to tell

burn your truth
make you believe in god
make you believe in ghosts
make you believe in me

i, i'd tell all your secrets if i had someone left to tell admire my fearful deceptions because i know your lies so well

make you believe in god

make you

make you believe in god
make you believe in me x 4
