

Jack Off Jill, When I Am Queen

When I am queen I will insist with perfect scars upon my wrists that everything you once held dear is taken away from you

When I am queen sweet girlscout's face and not a one will fall from grace
If all their hearts I could replace, but until then I'll have to...

Drown drown drown myself
Drown drown drown myself
Drown drown drown myself
Drown....

When I am queen on royal thrown made out of parts of broken bones of all the devils I have known that suck the angels dry

When I am queen I'll have my way I'll make it drowning dollie day and all the tears that we have cried we'll suck back in our eyes

Drown drown drown myself
Drown drown drown myself
Drown drown drown myself
Drown....

Drown drown drown myself
Drown drown drown myself
Drown drown drown myself
Drown.....

Hush my baby hush my baby
Hush my baby go to sleep
Hush my baby hush my baby
Hush my baby I'll make you bleed

When I am queen I will not wait my body type will still be great
I will not leave it up to fate because I hate you too

When I am queen they all will see the patron saint of self-injury the glitter sores will heal themselves I'll play the part of someone else

Drown drown drown myself
Drown drown drown myself
Drown drown drown myself
Drown....

Drown drown drown myself
Drown drown drown myself
Drown drown drown myself
Drown.....
