

Jack Russell, Take My Pain

memories behind the wall locked away from the dark morning comes without a trace rays of light won't shine through clouds of hate and i walk alone i walk alone take my pain lock my heart away trapped in time i'm the last one to learn life's insane in a world of hate free my soul when the love can be revealed to try and catch a fallen star try to find the strong of heart help the meek inherit the wind always seek the words of truth and i walk alone i walk alone
trapped in time i'm the last one to learn
take my pain
