

Jack's Mannequin, What Gets You Off?

It was last night
In an empty warehouse party, oh
And there in the blacklight
I could see the tatoos glowing on your body
Well, oh, oh oh oh
Oh, oh oh oh
She says to meet her there
Beside the power station, oh
And she said she'd let me stare
If the chemicals don't keep her waiting
Well, oh, oh oh
Whoa, oh oh oh
Well I'm always coming down from the night before where I left you
I'm always coming down, but I'm doing my best to get caught
I'm always coming down from the night before when I met you
To hear what gets you off
What gets you off
What gets you off
Red fingernail polish
Peeling like a sunburn, oh
That black designer dress
Looks better underneath our feet
Your knees on the dirt
Oh, oh oh oh
Oh, oh oh oh oh
Well I'm always coming down from the night before where I left you
I'm always coming down, but I'm doing my best to get caught
I'm always coming down from the night before when I bet you
To hear what gets you off
What gets you off
What gets you off
Yeah, what gets you off
Oh oh oh, yeah...
Well I'm always coming down from the night before where I left you
I'm always coming down, but I'm doing my best to get caught
We're always coming down from the night before when I bet you
To hear what gets you off
What gets you off
What gets you off
Oh oh oh...
What gets you off...
