Jack Wagner, Going Back Again

Open up your eyes
Tell me what you see
Is there a place for me
Inside of you
Can we both forgive
Try to just forget
Forget the past
And let the day begin

CHORUS-
I'm going back again
I'll take it to the end
Remember where we've been
And where we have to go
Take a look around
Look at what we've found
I know that we can be
What we want to be
I'm going back again

Every other day
I think of what to say
But the words
The words are just a part of it
I run into the walls
And then I see it all
And I dance alone
As I think of you

CHORUS-
I'm going back again
I'll take it to the end
Remember where we've been
And where we have to go
Take a look around
Look at what we've found
I know that we can be
What we want to be
I'm going back again

I see the story in your eyes
And we can never say goodbye
I wanna show you, show me
Come on, and show me

Take a look around
Look at what we've found
I know that we can be
What we want to be
I'm going back again
I'm going back again
I'm going back again
