

Jackie Lomax, Don't You Think It's Time

It's been a month ago today
You took your sweet love away
And now I'm blue
Since you've been gone I can't go on
I know there'll never be no one
Like you

Now don't you think it's time that you come on back to me

My friends all ask me where you've been
And I just turn and say to them
I've left you
But they can tell that it's not so
They turn their heads and start to go
And whisper 'It's not true'

Now don't you think it's time that you come on back to me

You don't know how much I miss your sweet love
You don't seem to care about the things I'm dreaming of

Now don't you think it's time that you come on back to me

If you would once again return
You'd quickly see my love still burns
In my heart
If you give love back to me
You will not give it uselessly
We'll never part

Now don't you think it's time that you come on back to me
