

Jacks Of All Trades, Give Way

This is a Jack-attack
Coming down like an avalanche
If you ain't standing on my side
You're standing on my way
As you're standing on my way
You better make way

Death around the corner and we try to hide
You made your moves now I'll make mine
Everything I've prayed for is here in my hands
The storm is getting closer and I try to stand
I try to pray just to stay awake
24-7 I try not to break
The situation is getting hectic
Cos everything that's in me has become electric

Step aside and give way
Step aside and give way

With your BMWs and Ferraris
You drive down the avenue smoking mari
See a rich man is a poor man with money
But kids die on the streets and that ain't funny
But do you even care or do you have a clue
You said you'd smoke me out well I'll smoke you too And I'll flush you down the toilet like a paper
Cos you got in my way you stupid faker

Break through give way for the truth now

If there's someone who's gonna step aside it's you!
