

Jackson 5, True Love Can Be Beautiful true love can be beautiful searching been looking everywhere soon i'll find you, girl i know i'm getting closer now can't wait to hold you, girl the day i find you, girl, you'll love me hey, girl when you're in my arms you'll want to keep for me i'm sure cause my love's that strong you'll be too weak to leave me

each day i try harder with faith and confidence i know i'll get you

true love can be beautiful but it takes time
true love can be beautiful but it takes time so close i can still feel your heartbeat but you're not here but my searching is all over now that you're growing near today i finally found you, girl, and you love me you're here in my arms where you'll stay today always...

always...

true love can be beautiful but it takes time today i found you, girl you love me

true love can be beautiful but it takes time
