

Jacksons, Destiny

In this world there's much confusion
And I've taste the city life and it's not for me
Now I do dream of distant places Where? I don't know now, but it's destiny...

If it's the rich life
I don't want it
Happiness ain't always material things

I want destiny
It's the place for me
Give me the simple life
I'm getting away from here
Let me be me
C'mon let me feel free

Now I'm a man that's for all seasons
And what the city offers me ain't naturally
I look to greet the stars but there are no stars to see I'm gonna search this world until I find my destiny

If its the rich life I don't want it
Happiness ain't always material things...

I want destiny
It's the place for me
Give me the simple life
I'm getting away from here
Let me be me
C'mon let me feel free
Let me be me

I wanna get far from here
Or should I up and fly away so fancy free yeah
Nobody can change my mind the words of destiny are calling me wild time...

(Music break)

Ah destiny
you and me
so fancy free

Ah destiny
should we fly away

Ah destiny
you and me
so fancy free

Ah----- destiny
