Conrazon de Melao

Emmanuel thinks about the girl He knows all too well She&#039;s got him a tangle And she&#039;s got him in her spell
She dances with his mind And she dances on the floor
And she knows how to drive him So lo-co!

Emmanuel knows she&#039;s trouble But what else can he do She&#039;s got him&#039;round his finger With her different points of view
She can dance away her troubles
She&#039;s danced into his life

She got him working hard for her All night!

Emmanuel seen it all But no like this before A girl who turns up the heat
By walking through the door
And when she hits the dancing floor
She burns up all the lights She&#039;s the one and only one thing in his sight

Emmanuel just doesn&#039;t know Where this all is gonna lead He only know what he wants And what he really needs He needs to know What makes her tick And all her other games He knows no other woman be the same
