

Jacob Banks, Something Beautiful

Here I stand
Taking off my pride
And I run, with nowhere to hide
I'm exposed, flaws and all
You're still here
And that's something beautiful

Like the sun, shining through the rain
Here with you, sharing better days
I'd be lost, lost without you
Thank God you're still here
And that's something beautiful

Oh oh oh oh
That's something beautiful
Oh oh oh oh
That's something beautiful
Oh oh oh oh
That you are here, here with me
That's something beautiful

If I fall, crash down to my knees
You pick me up, running to my needs
Even if I'm wrong, with no one to call
You're still here
And that's something beautiful

Oh oh oh oh
That's something beautiful
Oh oh oh oh
That's something beautiful
Oh oh oh oh
That you are here, here with me
That's something beautiful

Ouh
That's something beautiful
Oh oh oh oh
That's something beautiful
Oh oh oh
And that's something beautiful
Oh oh oh oh
That you are here, here with me
And that's something beautiful
