

Jade, Love In Paris

Choice of lying near you dear
I wanna live in pain
I should love you with reverence
That destroys my brain

And I cant give you all myself
And live by your side
Thinkin always suicide
Cancer will shine

And soforever alone
And so

My body is frail and the princess is blood
Cause my senses are gone
Leave your spirit and break the chain
My cancer will grow
Lilies horse is burning here
And children start to moan
Now its burning down my wings
But my beauty is so strong

And soforever alone
And so

I kiss your beauty
Underground
