

Jager Henry Bonham, Love Yourself (feat. Ray Luzier)

Step by
Step baby I give up
Seems like this wasn't real love
Told you all I had was trust
Then all you did was fuck it up
Now I'm picking up the pieces of my heart
Gotta go right back to the start
You love me when you saw me tear apart
I know you stared and it wasn't hard

But now I'm gone
And you can't save me

Why would I want to love anyone else
When I can't even love myself
Fucking up my mental health
I wonder if anyone knows now

Why would I want to love anyone else
When I can't even love myself
Fucking up my mental health
I wonder if anyone knows now

I always gotta fight these bad moods
Cover my depression and some tattoos
Always thought I would've had you
But you made our life go bashful

So now I'm fighting this feeling as you tear me apart
Never though love would be this hard
Until I knew that you went far
And watched you drive away in that car

But now I'm gone
And you can't save me

Why would I want to love anyone else
When I can't even love myself
Fucking up my mental health
I wonder if anyone knows now

Why would I want to love anyone else
When I can't even love myself
Fucking up my mental health
I wonder if anyone knows now
