

Jahcoozi, Chill Jill

They just opened up a Starbucks in Guantanamo bay
So wake up and smell the coffee soldier everyday
In the lakes of toxic waste Chinese children shall play Oh damn, that line just Cost me all my Chinese airplay ...
Now they've started selling children's vocals chords on Ebay
And the buyers are all tone deaf and they live in L.A.
Coz nobody wants to be a social worker these days,
They all just wanna bask in the limelight someday ...
Yo: girl what's all this social conscience
lemme hear you say Chill Jill just take a chill pill
get back to the shit that makes you ill.
Shake ya ass girl come on shake it baby talk about sex ll help u pay your bills yeah he'd get the tube to Leicester square to try and get laid and he'd end up waiting for the nightbus with no avail you overtoasted Irishman they'd say to his face i wouldn't go home with you, not even if you paid ... and he couldn't pay.
They gonna open up a branch Harrods in Haringay In 20 years the London I grew up in will have been changed They're using the excuse of the Olympic games
To revitalize the city, hope they don't make it lame - it'd be a shame Yo: girl what's all this social conscience
lemme hear you say
Chill Jill just take a chill pill
get back to the shit that makes you ill.
Shake ya ass girl come on shake it baby
talk about sex ll help u pay your bills
Listen up Angelina you got my cd
So yo Angelina just call me
When u doing your rounds doin all your philanthropy
And You're givin out cash don't forget about me
