

Jain, Star

get it get it up
get it on the ride
I'm the captain of my own life hide in front of my eyes I'm gonna make you mad

billionaire
got tones of them
fear is on the rise
and rules are by my side

music goes world world wide I'm gona make my style

you want to be a star
but you don't know who you are
but you can't stand the lights

get it on your life
stand up or they'll take your rights I don't need no MBA to know music is my DNA cause every time I feel ok is when you look the other way stop a minute mutation is coming on let's get some fierce on put a big beat on

on my way to redemption
my only way's creation
on my way to salvation
my won revolution

ego goes right
into the flow
I made my way to feel
brave not to safe
cause my mojo
stays right into the flow I made my place out of stress out of the rest

I wanne breake the moon
I feel misunderstood
