Jakalope, Creeper

Come to me Baby Follow my lead I've a confession to make It's always been this way

Oh I'm playing you for a fool You fell for every broken rule I'm doing what I owe to you It's been a long time coming And I'm coming for you

While I Silently I scream Inside I Barely breathe Silently I scream

Reflection overzone It'll never be the same Restless and jaded, I Still Still I've changed

Do you feel Naive Did you make me believe Were you Decieved Oh you fell right on your knees

Oh I'm playing you for a fool You fell for every broken rule I'm doing what I owe to you It's been a long time coming And I'm coming for you

While I Silently I scream Inside I Barely breathe Silently I scream

Reflection overzone It'll never be the same Restless and jaded, but Still Still I I've changed

You've got it going on No way I'll let you stay You've got it goin on I don't want to see your face

It's taken all this time
Before
I realized that I
Should go
Because I told you so I
Could let it go
Without a fight
It might not be right

Reflection overzone It'll never be the same Restless and jaded, but Still Still I I've changed

You've got it going on No way I'll let you stay You've got it goin I don't want to see your face [x3]
