

Jake Bugg, Broken

I wait here for you 'fore I'm broken down
I'm coming down
This time
'fore my heart bleeds

Far and away, where they took you down
I lead them over to your house
Where I'm broken
Down by the people if they let you breath
Don't give a damn if you still can't see,
Still my heart beats for you.

Have become
All I love and all I hoped for.
But I must carry on Always one
Never broken.
Run to the lobby where I saw you try
Don't give a damn for your reasons why

Down in the valley where the church bells cry,
I'll lead them over to your eyes
Whoa
I am one
I am one

Break story of peace and love
In a future
Pride, sacrifice
Came around
Never broken
Down by the people if they let you breath,
Don't give a damn if you still cant see.
Traveling down a street that I did not go

Down in the valley where the church bells cry,
I'll lead them over to your eyes!
Whoa
I am one.
Whoa
I am one
I am one.
