

Jake, I'm Okay

Why are you weeping over me this hour?
I'm slipping away but you know you couldn't keep me forever
I've gone too far to turn back again
And things will never be the same but

CHORUS:

I'm okay
You'll see
Just believe
The words I pray
Just believe
The words I pray

Where are you going?
Searching for me in the shadows
The night is so dark but the future holds something better
I know it's going to be alright
And things will never be the same

CHORUS

The words I pray
And things will never be the same
No, things will never be the same

CHORUS
