

Jamai, I Luv The Sun

Luv the sun
Luv the sun

Monday starts so dreary
I would like to cover up my eyes
Leave it all behind
Wednesday morning brighter
The sun shine not so far away
So I think I'll stay

You were always asking questions
And I was only dreaming of your face

I luv the sun
The morning creeps up slowly
I luv the sun
Now I'm never lonely

You're closing all your windows
The air is getting still inside
As you try to hide
And in the windy city
The breath keeps blowing through my mind
Deaf, dumb and blind

You were always asking questions
And I was only dreaming of your face

I luv the sun
The morning creeps up slowly
I luv the sun
Now I'm never lonely
I luv the sun

All your eyes are bowling
You was suddenly away to suit
All your questions killing me

Tu tu tu tu tu tu tu tu tu tu tu tu du du duu
Tu tu tu tu tu tu tu tu tu tu du du bi du bi du

I luv the sun
The morning creeps up slowly

I luv the sun
Now I'm never lonely
I luv the sun
Oooh yeah oh oh oh yeah
I luv the sun
Oh oh yeah yeah

Luv the sun..
