James Blunt, Adrenaline

I was so unprepared
Forgive me if I stop and stare
Like my first lung of air
I was here and you were there
You're hitting me harder than
A million goodbyes
And this isn't a heart attack
But I feel it inside
Like a shot straight through my heart
Adrenaline, adrenaline
Like a flashbang in the dark
Adrenaline, adrenaline
I take just one look at you
And I think I'm bulletproof
When you hold me in your arms
Adrenaline, adrenaline
It's all a blur, I'm colorblind
Two bodies moving, but just one mind
You cut me open from inside out
You lift me up and knock me down
You're hitting me harder than (hitting me harder)
A million goodbyes
And this isn't a heart attack, but I feel it inside
Like a shot straight through my heart
Adrenaline, adrenaline
Like a flashbang in the dark
Adrenaline, adrenaline
I take just one look at you
And I think I'm bulletproof
When you hold me in your arms
Adrenaline, adrenaline
And I don't care if I overdose
'Til I'm comatose
I don't care, I don't care
Let me stare 'til I overload
There's no antidote
I don't care, I don't care
Like a shot straight through my heart
Adrenaline, adrenaline
Like a flashbang in the dark
Adrenaline, adrenaline
I take just one look at you
And I think I'm bulletproof
When you hold me in your arms
Adrenaline, adrenaline
Like a shot straight through my heart
Adrenaline, adrenaline
Like a flashbang in the dark
Adrenaline, adrenaline
I take just one look at you
And I think I'm bulletproof
When you hold me in your arms
Adrenaline, adrenaline
