

James Bonamy, The Heart Stops the Clock

(C. Jones/P. Bunch)

He says, &quot;Why can't a woman see time like a man?
I just want to show her a good time tonight.&quot;
She says, &quot;Why can't a man see time like a woman?
Why can't he see I'm the rest of his life?&quot;
Now she sees it her way
And he sees it his
That's the way that it is
Right up to the moment

The heart stops the clock
Just long enough
A man and a woman fall in love
The world don't turn
The night stands still
It feels just like it always will
The heart stops the clock

He says, &quot;I can't remember my life without her.
Tryin' is simply a waste of my time.&quot;
She says, &quot;My life before him is a blur.
I can't remember when he wasn't mine.&quot;
Now he sees it her way
And she sees it his
That's the way that it is
Right from the start when

The heart stops the clock
Just long enough
A man and a woman fall in love
The world don't turn
The night stands still
It feels just like it always will
The heart stops the clock

Now he sees it her way
And she sees it is
And they get a glimpse
Of all heaven is

The heart stops the clock
Just long enough
A man and a woman fall in love
The world don't turn
The night stands still
It feels just like it always will
The heart stops the clock

The heart stops the clock
Just long enough
A man and a woman fall in love
The world don't turn
The night stands still
It feels just like it always will
The heart stops the clock
