

James Corden, I Promise You (piosenka z filmu F

life is tough
when you're scare and small still tough
when you're big and tall wrong side of MacGregor's wall suddenly your home is like a tennis ball up and down
and side to side
serve so hard you think you'll die no love for you

life is rough
when you feel confused
still rough
when you hear the new that each day got to pick and choose the same old size
the .. and
but don't be sad
you are welcome here
even certain kind of us are unclear
I Promise You

wind blows
and heaven knows
that sun concern the rain there's nothing much to fear thou

doors close
and we're know
that love can turn the pain so let's be each other heroes
