

James, Lost A Friend

My t.v. is staring at me it says go to sleep go to sleep.
Turns me into a siamese twin where do i start? the Tv screen begins...
Plugs me into some holy geek his point in life is incomplete My Tv is telling me that only money can make me happy hold the course and then sail Across the sattelite beams across the oceans or seas to the light house I can be I see some soldiers with guns and they are killing for fun they are killing to entertain me Caught between that world and this I'd sell my soul for a bond girl's kiss Caught between that world and this I'd sell my soul for a state of bliss My tv is telling me that all the money goes into the military
hold the course and then sail
Across the sattelite beams
across the oceans or seas
to the light house I can be
I see some soldiers with guns
and they are killing for fun
they are killing to entertain me and then I heard your name as the spaceman came he came right thru my screen and then his lifeline broke he began to choke jump cut to another scene Lost a Friend to the Sea
I lost a friend to the sea
