

James Morrison, One Life

When I was a young boy
I was living for the moment
The world was wide open
I had every choice
But with so many choices
I just didn't know what to do now
All I say is just forget it
If you tell me I'll regret it
Just let it be what it is
Cause it's so easy to say

If I knew yesterday what I know today
Where would I be tomorrow
I won't let my soul slide away
I'd do whatever it takes
Cause this time's only borrowed

I got one life, one life, one life
And I'm gonna live it
I got one life, one life, one life
And I'm gonna live it right

My daddy sat me down
He said "Son, it's probably time to start making some plans?"
And I said "No, not right now?"
With so many choices
I just didn't know what to do now
All I say is just forget it
If you tell me I'll regret it
Let it be what it is
Cause it's so easy to say

If I knew yesterday what I know today
Where would I be tomorrow
I won't let my soul slide away
I'd do whatever it takes
Cause this time's only borrowed

I got one life, one life, one life
And I'm gonna live it
I got one life, one life, one life
And I'm gonna live it right

You say the more you think
You know what's right
The less you do
What you feel inside
So I won't pretend that I always know
I just follow my heart wherever it goes
And I may not always get it right
But at least I'm living cause I've only got this?

One life, one life,
I've got this one life

If I knew yesterday what I know today
Where would I be tomorrow
I won't let my soul slide away
I'd do whatever it takes
Cause this time's only borrowed

I got one life, one life, one life
And I'm gonna live it
I got one life, one life, one life

And I?m gonna live it right

When I?m an old man
Hope I?ll be rocking in my chair
Smiling to myself
I?ll tell my baby girl
You only got one life
So make sure you live it right
