

James Taylor, She Thinks I Still Care

Just because I ask a friend about her, just because I spoke her name somewhere.
Just because I rang her number by mistake today, she thinks I still care.

Just because I hang out at the same old places where the memory of her lingers everywhere,
Just because I'm not the happy guy I used to be, she thinks I still care.

But if she's happy thinking I still need her, then let that silly notion bring her cheer.
But how could she ever be so foolish, oh, where would she get such an idea?

Just because I ask a friend about her. just because I spoke her name somewhere.
Just because I saw her, then went all to pieces, she thinks I still care, she thinks I still care.
