

Jami Smith, Beautiful Moments

These are the beautiful moments
When your name is lifted high
These are the beautiful moments
When our hearts join your design

These are the beautiful moments
Humble my heart my kind
These are the beautiful moments
When truth overwhelms my pride

With one voice we sing
With one heart we cry unity
With a spirit of humility
We cry holy You are holy

These are the beautiful moments
Bowing to kiss your feet
These are the beautiful moments
When your love makes me complete

These are the beautiful moments
When time melts into your glory
These are the beautiful moments
Refined by the perfect love story
