

Jamie Scott, When will I see your face again

Here I Am, everyday
Since you said, you'd come again,
But it's not fair, cos you're not here,
I wait in vain, but nothing has changed,
I'm a flower, soaking in the rain,
If I could wish one thing, I'd hear you call my name,
So when will I see your face again,
When will you touch my life again (ohh yeah),
When will I breathe you in again
I think I love you, will I see your face again?
Little thing, like the rain coming,
She looked at me a certain kind of way,
Tell me girl, where are you now,
Cos I don't know how much longer I can wait,
I'm a dreamer, waiting for the sun,
When you're coming in, I know my life's begun,
Tell me girl
When will I see your face again (ohh yeaah),
When will you touch my life again (ummm um),
When will I breathe you in again,
I think I love you, will I see your face again?
You know that all my life I've been waiting,
Waiting for some, someone like you to love me,
You can't come by like an angel, into my life,
And then fly away, fly away...
Oh honey, cos I, Uh baby, ba ba doo yeah, oh ooh,
Sing, I've only seen youuu, oh,
I said, uh huh, I said I said, yeah (woo)
When will I see your face again (I wanna see you once in my life),
When will you touch my life again, (wanna see you twice in my life),
When will I breathe you in again (ohhh),
I think I love you, will I see your face again,
I said, see bap pa da doo ba ba
Bap ba doo yeah, that's what we do yeaahhh
When will I see your face again my friend,
Oh yeah, I think you gotta let me know yeah,
Oh yeah
